The tentative titles with brief outlines of the four books are;

1) The Unseen world; An Islamic Perspective:

The modern mind influenced by the mind-boggling technological advancement of the modern age, finds itself unwilling to take interest in the possibility of another, unseen world. This book will be an attempt to show the reader the logic behind the five elements of the unseen world that Muslims are either required to confirm as a part of their religious obligation or are unhesitatingly acknowledged by them as consequences of accepting the religious message of Islam. The five elements of the unseen world are God, divine revelation, life hereafter, angels, and jinns.

Chapters: 1) Why belief in God? (2) Why belief in Hereafter? (3) Why Belief in Divine Revelation? (4) The Role of Angels. (5) Experiencing Jinns.

2) Islamic Banking and Finance: A Different Perspective

The Qur'an strongly condemns the financial arrangement called Riba. There are two views on the question of what constitutes Riba. According to one view, it is interest and much more. According to another, it is economic exploitation of others.

This book will show that Riba is simply interest, removing which would remove Riba from the economy. It also dispels the misunderstanding that only a limited possibility of financial arrangements is available as a result of the prohibition of Riba.

Chapters: 1) what is Riba? Why has it Been Prohibited? (2) What Alternative Ways of Financing are Possible? (3) Why is indexation Acceptable? (4) Why is Riba al-Fadl Unacceptable? (5) Why is Murabahah Unacceptable?

3) Islam and The West: Area of Convergence and Conflict.

Myriad questions have risen their heads in recent times regarding teachings of Islam to cause Islam to be viewed as a religion promoting intolerances, bigotry, self-righteousness, and violence. Many regard it as an outdated message that needs to be either radically reformed or discarded.

This book is an attempt to show that the above view about Islam is mistaken. The Islamic understanding on the issue as it emerges from an objective understanding of its original sources. Clarifies that the origins of the mistaken view are to be found in the incorrect understanding of Non-Muslims as well as some Muslims.

Chapters; 1) Religious Tolerance in Islam (2) Human Rights in Islam (3) Position of Women in Islam and the West (4) Can Muslim be friends with Non-Muslims? (5) Who is a kafir? (6) Jihad; its Meanings and Application

4) Qur'an Guidance; An Independent View

According to the Islamic faith the Qur'an is God's Book for the mankind. However, the way book is presented by some Muslims, there are many genuine reasons in the minds of non-Muslims and some born Muslims as well that the Muslim belief is far from acceptable

By addressing some of the issues raised by non-Muslims, this book will show that even though the Muslim claim is reasonable, the wrong attitude of and incorrect presentation of Qur'an concepts by some Muslims is making it appear otherwise.

Chapter; 1) An Introduction to Qur'an (2) Law of Guidance in Qur'an (3) Are Only Muslims Dear to God? (4) Does God despise Non-Muslims?
