Council of Islamic Ideology held its 169th meeting, which was presided over by Chairman of the Council Dr. Khalid Masud. Important issues were discussed and necessary decisions were made.

Council of Islamic Ideology shows serious concerns over various problems regarding family laws in Pakistan. In this respect, for the issue of "Talaq" (Divorce), The Council said that there should be a separate form of "Talaq" just like the form of Nikah (Nikha nama). Council was of the view that, since the abolishment of FCR in the case of implementation of Shariah in the Tribal areas, Council's advice should be taken. Moreover, to curb the increasing trend of "Domestic Violence" in the country, the Council stressed that "Qisas" law must be implemented. The Council reiterated that necessary amendments should be made in the personal laws of non-Muslims.
